

Circulation of Desert Sun is Tops in its Field in State

Breaking all records of former years, The Desert Sun has been running over the 5000 mark in circulation for the past several weeks. Papers have been selling out on most of the newsstands in less than three days. This is undoubtedly the largest paid circulation of any weekly newspaper in California outside of the metropolitan area—for the winter months.

Based on figures in the 1951 directory of California newspapers published by the state newspaper association, The Desert Sun has the THIRD largest paid circulation based on the YEAR'S AVERAGE, outside of metropolitan areas—despite the fact that newsstand sales drop off sharply in the summer months. Here are the six leading paid circulation weeklies outside of the metropolitan areas, as listed in the directory:

Santa Maria Advertiser	4484
Auburn Journal	4028
THE DESERT SUN	3991
Chula Vista Star	3917
Napa Journal	3909
Hemet News	3884

Figures are average for 12 months ending Sept. 30, 1950.

Leading paid circulation newspapers located near the large cities are the Arcadia Tribune (6270), Montebello News (5792), Ocean Beach News, San Diego, (5604), Tujunga Record-Ledger (4435) and the El Cajon Valley News, San Diego (4034). Among the semi-weekly newspapers the highest paid circulation is the Ukiah Redwood Journal with 5200.

During the past four years, The Desert Sun circulation has been increasing steadily. And it has all been by VOLUNTARY subscriptions, no premiums, contests or other circulation promotion schemes have been employed. Instead, every effort has been made to improve the content and mechanical facilities of the newspaper.

Hundreds of letters have come from readers, not only in Palm Springs but half the states in the Union, complimenting The Desert Sun on getting out a good newspaper—one which is a credit to the fine community it serves. By enjoying this unusually high reader interest, The Desert Sun is maintaining a very large circulation in proportion to the population of the area it serves, and thus creating an effective advertising medium for the merchants of the community and national advertisers.

WE'RE OFF TO THE SHOW—That's where Singer Allan Jones and beautiful Dinah Shore are preparing to scoot on this Palm Springs Police department motorcycle. The occasion will be the second annual Palm Springs Police show at the Polo Grounds next Saturday night. Miss Shore and Jones are just two of nearly a dozen top-notch stars who will donate their talent to the benefit event.

STARS UNDER THE STARS TO MARK POLICE SHOW

"Stars—under the stars" might well describe the second annual Police benefit show to be held next Saturday, March 31, at the Polo Grounds, it was announced yesterday by Association President Bob White.

Bob Hope, Dinah Shore, Dick Haymes, Eddie Cantor, Jack Benny and many others will appear to make up the most impressive "resident-celebrity" list in Palm Springs entertainment annals. Les Brown and his "Band of Renown" will provide the rhythm starting at 8 p.m.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made to seat 7000 persons," White explained, "and no one will have to stand unless the great line-up of celebrities brings forth an avalanche of visitors. We are flooring the in-field at the rodeo arena and will erect a large stage ahead of the announcer's booth. It's a big job but we are going to do it right."

Tickets are on sale from 10 to 4 each day in the booth in front of the Bank of America on Palm Canyon drive, according to Officer Dale Thompson, ticket chairman. Mrs. "Hutch" Moseley is handling the booth here.

Right angle signs are prohibited by city ordinance except in cases where a variance has been granted.

By Phat

It won't be long until we say, Be smart, my friend, and stay through May.

And that, fellow citizens, is the complete result of 15 minutes of deep thought, staring at some clean white copy paper. . . . But right now, until May, at least, is the best time of the year. . . . And even if it rains, it'll do for the wild flowers.

WHICH REMINDS ME, that I received a letter from a Mrs. Theresa Ferrero, president of the California Spring Blossom and Wild Flower association of San Francisco. . . . She asked me to call attention to Section 384-A of the California Penal Code . . . this deals with wild flowers and makes it unlawful to cut, mutilate, destroy or remove native plants, shrubs and trees growing along public highways or on private land, the latter without the permission of the owners. . . . The penalty runs up to $200 fine and/or six months in jail. . . . Would be cheaper to grow your own. . . . When we had that best outburst of wild flowers in 30 years two years ago the desert was black with people picking 'em. . . . Probably $3,000,000 in fines

Plaza Bought by Hollywood Man, Report

Announcement was made in Beverly Hills Wednesday and confirmed here yesterday of the sale of the world-famed Plaza, in the heart of town. The sale involves probably the biggest single transaction in the history of the Village.

Joseph Miller, Beverly Hills realtor, represented the buyer, an unidentified Hollywood financier, and Robert Ransom the sellers, the Davidson-Patterson interests.

Miller said that the name of the purchaser and the consideration would probably be announced within a week. It was reported here that the price was well over one million dollars.

Ralph Sierson, trust department executive with the local Bank of America, represented the Mary P. Davidson estate in the transaction.

PROPERTY involved has a 390-foot frontage on Palm Canyon drive and 490 feet on Indian avenue. It comprises many store buildings in the Plaza and on Palm Canyon drive, the post office, theater, bungalows in two courts, the Plaza Lodge, and other developments. On Indian avenue it extends south to Aransas road.

The Plaza development was constructed in 1935 by Mrs. Julia S. Carnell, now deceased, who came to Palm Springs in the early thirties as the widow of H. G. Carnell, president of the National Cash Register company at the time of his death. Cost

Power Company to Ask Hike in Rates

California Electric Power Co. has asked for increased rates in the Palm Springs area, Public Utilities commission announced to the city this week.

City Manager Russell Rink said he has not yet studied the lengthy application but that the city will probably formally protest at the hearing. Date of the hearing has not been set here.

35th Easter Dawn Service Set for 5:30 A.M. Sunday

Preparations have been completed for the 35th annual Easter Sunrise service here. Dr. James H. Blackstone, pastor of Community church, in charge of the services, said that the program would commence at 5:30 a.m. from the high prominence overlooking the O'Donnell golf course, site of similar services the past few years. Before that the services were held on the Desert Inn grounds.

Worshippers at the service last year still remember the beautiful rainbow which appeared across the valley, heralded by the High School trumpeters, Joe Garcia.

CHAMBER ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED IN COUNTY

Twenty-two chambers of commerce throughout Riverside county made history Tuesday at Hemet when they signed new Articles of Association creating the "Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce."

Communities with representatives which created the new organization were: Arlington, Banning, Beaumont, Blythe (Palo Verde Valley), Cabazon, Cathedral City, Corona, Desert Hot Springs, Elsinore, Hemet, Idyllwild, Indio, La Sierra, Palm Springs, North Palm Springs, Perris, Riverside, Rubidoux City, San Jacinto, Thermal, West Riverside.

Miller said that the name of the purchaser and the consideration would probably be announced within a week. It was reported here that the price was well over one million dollars.

Ralph Sierson, trust department executive with the local Bank of America, represented the Mary P. Davidson estate in the transaction.

MORE THAN sixty people attended the auspicious gathering, including all four of the county supervisors.

Homer Varner, who has been instrumental in helping business men from all over the county create the new organization, served as chairman until William W. Watson, the representative from Hemet, was unanimously elected chairman pro-tem of the new group.

The delegate from the Riverside chamber of commerce, Richard B. Hampson Jr., was elected secretary pro-tem upon nomination of Herbert Samson.

FOLLOWING the creation of the new organization, the delegates unanimously elected to admit Thermal as the twenty-second and last chamber to sign the original articles because of a telegram which was received in support of the new organization.

Civet Pride of Village Shyly Identifies Self

The beast that walks in the night has been removed from Herbert Lenoir village. Manager Bob Bennett announced yesterday.

For several months tenants in the housing project had reported that a creature "larger than a rat because he seemed to gallop" was heard romping through the attics of the long, barracks-like buildings near the high school.

BENNETT set several traps for the phantom animal, even going so far as to include a small bear trap in his string. Several times Bennett made his rounds and always found the trap gimmicks robbed of their food—except for the ones containing cheese. The elusive one didn't like cheese, another clue.

In desperation Bennett called in an animal hobbyist Ed Penn, a veteran of several years trapping experience.

After examining small, claw-like tracks in the attic dust, bushy tail smudges on the floors and other—er, evidence—that the beast left behind, Penn said it was a civet cat. This a first cousin to a skunk only it doesn't smell as badly. However, he can respond if need be.

Solution Near to Problems of Tramway

Coincident with word that the state park commission last Friday had granted the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park authority an extension of five years on its contract to build an aerial tramway from the floor of the desert to the winter sports area in the mountains, was the announcement Monday that settlement of the right of way problem appears near.

A land-for-land agreement with the United States Forest Service is being negotiated, it was disclosed.

THE TRAM authority sought a right of way across a small portion of forest land and heated hearings were held in Riverside. Later Secretary of Interior Oscar Chapman denied the easement on the ground he lacked legal authority to grant it.

This week Chief Forester Lyle F. Watts said he would recommend to the department of the interior a deal whereby national forest lands will be excluded from state park lands traversed by the tramway.

ASSEMBLYMAN John Babage, it is understood, is preparing an amendment to the tramway bill which would permit the authority to trade some choice wooded land for the barren section of state forestry land which now bars the big lift.

The extension of time granted last week by the state park board came after Chairman Earl Coffman of the authority and Henry Lockwood, its attorney, pointed out that critical shortage would prevent any action in the near future. Nothing can be done, they said, until the ban is lifted on these materials.

Updyke reported to Bennett that through the wall of their bedroom. Everybody sat tight and by yesterday the sly one was trapped in the bedroom of the Updyke home.

Turned out he's a friendly little fellow who will almost eat out of your hand. The Updykes are going to box him and send the object of three month's search to a youthful friend in Los Angeles.

She tore the telephone off the wall.

Getting wind of the commotion, the phone company sent a truck out to investigate. Failing to give madame muscles time to cool off, phone man Len Stewart tried to discuss the matter with her.

"She abused him verbally," police stoically reported, "threw rocks at him and damaged his truck with large stones."

The chief himself investigated and confirmed the trail of destruction after a talk with the trailer park manager, Vic Stolberg.

Casting weather eyes at the walking stick of dynamite, both the telephone company and trailer park officials have wisely decided against filing complaints against the woman so far.

SPECTACULAR SHOW TO CLOSE CIRCUS APRIL 7

With the first half of the Desert Circus a highly successful affair culminating in the big Red, White and Blue Ball Saturday night at the Polo Grounds Pavilion, plans were set in motion for the final day of events Saturday, April 7.

The final day's events include the third annual bands competition, the 15th annual Desert Circus parade, a real Circus at the Polo Grounds and the annual western dance.

ONE OF AMERICA'S foremost trained horse acts—the Mark Smith Liberty Drill team of six black and six white horses—will headline the spectacular circus in the Polo Grounds Arena at 8 p.m., it was announced by Frank H. Bennett, chairman of the show.

The Mark Smith troupe will be one of a large number of famous Circus groups to perform in the two and a half hour show in the Horse Show arena on the concluding night of the Fifteenth Annual Desert Circus.

Members whose terms expire are Mrs. Helen Staley, recently appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Roland Vaile, and Hilton McCabe, president of the board.

McCabe said yesterday that he had retired and is a candidate for re-election.

Scout Camporee Here in April

Plans for the annual Scout Camporee to be held here April 21 and 22 were mapped at a meeting of Palm Springs district council of Boy Scouts Wednesday.

Chairman Herman Reich presided and Claud Chapin, neighborhood commissioner, outlined the plans for the model encampment to be set up in the triangle bounded by Indian avenue, Ramon road and Palm Canyon drive.

Route of Freeway Through Banning Reversed by State

Banning residents this week learned that the state division of highways will recommend that Highways 60-70-99 be routed south of the business center to end the bottleneck now existing on Ramsey, the main east-west street.

The disclosure was made by District Engineer Spencer W. Lowden of the highway division at a meeting attended by councilmen, civic leaders and citizens.

THE PROPOSED ROUTE will swing south from its present location a short distance east of Banning, go under the Southern Pacific tracks at an underpass, turn west again south of Banning business section and the railroad to a point near the western city limits of Banning where it will turn northerly, underpass the railroad again and join the present highway to Beaumont a short distance west of Banning limits.

At the San Gorgonia avenue crossing, a complete interchange of traffic will be provided. Two other outlets are planned with the intersecting streets using at overpass.

BANNING citizens who had hoped that Livingston street, north of the tracks, would be selected as the route, planned to ask a hearing on the proposed route.

The highways at present traverse Banning via Ramsey street, the main east and west thoroughfare, and on peak traffic weekends have often been clogged for hours.

Desert leaders have watched the situation closely in the past years.

St. Patrick's Day Dance Draws Scores

Scores of villagers converged on World War Memorial hall last Saturday evening when the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick's staged their annual St. Patrick's day dance.

Ewing Parker's orchestra furnished the music and there were Irish songs by Fulton Burley, Palm House entertainer, who contributed his talent to the event.

Baleful Crash

Autoist Injured As
Hay Falls on Him

G. A. Lunsford, 33, Phoenix, Ariz., was treated at Community hospital early this week for facial cuts received in an odd accident on Highway 111 north of the city.

As he was passing a hay-laden truck, bales of hay toppled from the truck, on breaking the windshield on Lunsford's automobile.

The truck was driven by Edward A. Merman, 32, of Bell Gardens.

Tax Exemptions May be Filed Here

Veterans and churches, entitled to tax exemptions, were informed this week that they need not go to Riverside to file their claims.

T. M. Powell, deputy assessor for this district, said he will be at World War Memorial hall, 400 North Bellardo road, next Saturday and on successive Saturdays from 9 a.m. until noon, to receive exemption applications.

Time for filing these exemptions started the first Monday in March and the deadline is the last Monday in May.

Those entitled to exemptions are urged to call on Powell as soon as possible and save the expense of a trip to the county seat.

Gentle Spring

It Arrives on Time
Wednesday Morning

Aha, Gentle Spring! It came in Wednesday morning while a few people were just going home after their last winter night out and the rest of the Village, except for the occupants of the night prowls, were asleep.

Spring arrived on schedule at 2:26 a.m., PST., when the sun was halfway along from its farthest point south, reached Dec. 21 last year, and its most northerly spot, scheduled for June 22.

The reorganization... would reduce the cost of the court system and result in substantial savings to the taxpayers. You can have a much more efficient court system than you now have at less cost."

BUT A DELEGATION of citizens appeared and said they preferred the smaller—more expensive—courts because they would be closer in touch with them. And the courts would be in closer touch with the people.

The proposal for the consolidation had the endorsement of the County Bar Association and the State Judicial Council and the partial endorsement of the County Justices and Constables Association.

UNDER THE BAR association's plans, three desert townships in the eastern end of the county would be consolidated. There would be no changes in Palm

Springs Township lines but the local police court would disappear and its operations taken over by the justice court. Judge

E. E. Theriault is both police and justice court judge here.

Supervisors Monday took a bleak view of the county bar's recommendations that the county's 27 police and justice courts be consolidated into nine courts.

Indications were that they would vote to leave the set-up pretty much as it is now.

BUT THE AMENDMENT leaves it up to supervisors to decide whether to consolidate any of the other 14 justice courts throughout the county.

And they indicated Monday

they may not consolidate any.

torney for the state judicial council (which helped develop the Constitutional amendment), told them:

"The reorganization... would reduce the cost of the court system and result in substantial savings to the taxpayers. You can have a much more efficient court system than you now have at less cost."

THE COURT sustained the denial of trial court and denied a petition for re-hearing.

The Banning law firm then filed a petition for a hearing before the supreme court. This was granted March 15.

The plaintiff's attorneys said the case has been studied extensively by title companies, and that its implications have caused the state legislature to pass emergency measures, since it is without precedent in California. Should it be won, it will become of national importance, they remarked.

Supervisors Monday took a bleak view of the county bar's recommendations that the county's 27 police and justice courts be consolidated into nine courts. Indications were that they would vote to leave the set-up pretty much as it is now.

A state constitutional amendment adopted by the voters last year will make it compulsory to replace Riverside Title Company with a municipal court and to wipe out all the city police courts in the county.

The case of Dorothy L. Hocking versus the Title Insurance and Trust Company of Los Angeles and the Riverside Title Company has been granted a hearing by the supreme court, according to notice received last week by the plaintiff's attorneys, Wing, Wing and Brown of Banning.

The suit, which has drawn wide attention throughout the state during the past three years, stemmed from the sale of two lots by reference to a subdivision map at Palm Springs.

The plaintiff lost in the first round on a demurrer in trial court.

HERE THE COURT sustained the denial of trial court and denied a petition for re-hearing. The Banning law firm then filed a petition for a hearing before the supreme court. This was granted March 15.

The suit, which has drawn wide attention throughout the state during the past three years, stemmed from the sale of two lots by reference to a subdivision map at Palm Springs.

The plaintiff lost in the first round on a demurrer in trial court.

Action Soon on Overpass on N. Indian

Dangerous Crossing at Garnet Station to be Eliminated

County Road Commissioner A. C. Keith said yesterday his office has "nearly finished" plans for a $130,000 overpass for the Southern Pacific railroad crossing at Garnet in the desert.

The overpass will end a serious traffic hazard on North Indian avenue at the Garnet station. The State Public Utilities Commission had threatened to close the existing crossing, which is on a curve of the Southern Pacific line.

Trains on siding block the motorist's view of moving trains.

Closing the crossing would force school buses between Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs to travel via Whitewater — a route many miles longer than the one they travel now.

Traffic counts have indicated nearly 1000 cars use the crossing each day.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS approved the project last year. Money will come from Federal and State funds given to the County for highway construction.

Keith said it would be difficult now to predict a date for the beginning of construction. He said the state legislature has yet to approve the measures making the funds available.

Wanna Pup?

You'll Have to Wait Six Weeks for It

Anyone patient enough to wait six weeks for a pup may have one at that time, according to Sam Hays, 3764 Calle San Raphael. Early this week one of his two coal black dogs delivered seven coal black little ones.

Although the ancestry of the pups is somewhat questionable, it is felt that the father is Bozo, long-time member of the Hays household. The mother, Bozette and practically a carbon copy of Bozo, was recovered from the desert wastes by Hays some months ago and has taken her place in the Calle San Raphael home.

Bozette will not give up her brood for another six weeks, said Hays.

Both papers had been issued twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays. But with the consolidation the News will take over the Tuesday field and the Date Palm the Thursday field, each appearing once a week.

Both papers will be issued from the Date Palm plant and all subscribers of both papers will be served without interruption. News subscribers also getting the Date Palm on Thursdays and Date Palm subscribers also getting the News on Tuesdays.

Maundy Thursday services were commemorated last night at University of Redlands chapel by Scottish Rite Masons of Riverside and San Bernardino counties. A dinner in the Commons preceded the services.

About 20 Scottish Rite Masons for Palm Springs attended the services and ritual.

Painted Canyon Road Celebration Set for March 31

All residents of the eastern end of Riverside County today were invited by Desert Associates to join in a public celebration marking the opening next Saturday afternoon of the new road into the gorgeously colored Painted Canyon near Mecca.

The event set for 3 p.m. in the canyon, will inaugurate travel over five miles of good gravel road which County Supervisor Homer Varner of Indio has provided to make this tourist attraction again open to the public.

Treacherous sand roadbed has made the canyon all but inaccessible for several years. The canyon is reached via Indio, Coachella, Thermal and Mecca. At the latter community the road turns eastward toward the hills.

BRILLIANTLY COLORED sheer cliffs have long made Painted Canyon one of the beauty spots of the desert, and the Desert Associates are happy to again have it open to the public, commented L. C. Lewis, Associates' president.

Parking space has been provided for nearly 200 cars by the Indio Troop of the Sheriff's Posse which is handling details of the grounds. Ted Carlson, member of the troop and vice president of the Associates, is general chairman, assisted by Lieut. Kennedy, Jack Grost and Roman Warren.

Families are invited by Chairman Carlson to bring a picnic lunch and remain over for the second night's performance of the Mecca Box Canyon Easter Pageant which will be presented in a spectacular canyon setting near Painted Canyon at 8 p.m. the same night. A cast of 100 students in this impressive Easter play which gives a new treatment to the sacred event. Those not wishing to bring lunches may purchase sandwiches, soft drinks, hot coffee and other foods at a stand to be operated at Painted Canyon by the Indio Posse. Low prices will prevail for these foods.

FEATURE of the Painted Canyon celebration will be presentation of a talk prepared by Lloyd Mason Smith, noted curator of the Palm Springs Desert Museum, dealing with the strange geological formation of the canyon. Visitors will be urged to inspect the vari-colored formations deeper in the canyon which extends a long distance into the hills. Members of the County Board of Supervisors, mayors of desert cities and presidents of Chambers of Commerce will be special guests at the celebration.

Possemen are busy this week hauling in loads of wood which picnickers may use for camp fires to ward off the evening chill. Persons planning to attend the Easter Pageant are advised to bring warm clothing and blankets for sand-sitting. Camp or folding chairs are permitted in one section of the audience area and these provide extra comfort.

The Easter Seal drive will end Easter Sunday, March 25.

Easter Seal Sale in Final Week

Contributions for Easter Seals have raised to date a good portion of the quota set in the 1951 campaign in Riverside county, according to Col. Arnold W. Shutter, chairman of the current campaign.

This year's campaign went into 40,000 local homes with the annual Easter Seal appeal of the Crippled Children's Society of Riverside county and is now entering its fourth and concluding week.

Of funds contributed here, 70 per cent will be retained for local services.

In California, the money provides such facilities as speech clinics, special schools and camps for the handicapped, sheltered workshops and parent guidance centers. Services in the state range from training of therapists to provision of transportation between school, medical center and home.

The Easter Seal drive will end Easter Sunday, March 25.

American Legion Hall, Palm Springs the first and third Thursdays of the month at 1 p.m. to explain the law.

Social Security Advice Available

Many workers 65 years or older who have worked one and a half years on jobs covered by Social Security and are not working now, should contact the Social Security office before April 1, 1951, according to J. C. Hollister, manager of the San Bernardino office. Those who have contacted the officer since September 1, 1950 need not make inquiry again regarding the insurance benefits unless they have accumulated more credits.

Anyone now 65 years or over who worked and was paid wages of $50 or more in each of six calendar quarters in employment covered by the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program since January 1, 1937, is insured, Hollister said. The minimum insurance payment is $20 per month for the wage earner, and another $10 for his wife if she is age 65.

The 1950 amendments to the Social Security law make insurance benefits payable to many persons who were not insured prior to September 1, 1950.

Cactus Jumpers Jamboree Week from Tomorrow

Cathedral City's 13th Annual Cactus Jumpers Jamboree will be held on Saturday, March 31. This annual "fun" day is sponsored by all the Cathedral City civic and service organizations under the leadership of the chamber of commerce.

A real outdoor western prime-rib barbecue dinner is a feature of the celebration. Free entertainment is staged and many prizes given. There will be games of every kind to amuse young and old, all held in the Town Hall and surrounding area.

The primary purpose of this annual affair is for villagers and visitors to have fun. It is all handled on a cooperative basis.

This year it is hoped, in addition, to make up some of the deficit incurred by the chamber for Cathedral City's new highway curbing and paving.

Because the wife of an Australian miner gave up her weekly cinema at the insistence of some friends who wanted her to go on a picnic, residents of Southern California's Coachella Valley will have the rare opportunity of seeing the world's largest black star sapphire on display at the Riverside County Fairgrounds in Indio on March 30, 31 and April 1.

Officials of the Coachella Valley Mineral society have completed arrangements for the largest and finest gem and mineral show in this part of southern California.

When the precious stones arrived in Los Angeles, Harry Kazanjian reduced his sapphire to a cut gem of 722 carats. This exceeds by 200 carats the world's former champion, the J. P. Morgan "Star of India." The Kazanjian's named their prize gem the "Black Star of Queensland"; and they valued it at $300,000. To insure that it would remain undisputed as the world's largest, they had purchased all the other known large sapphires from the Anakie field. These remain uncut but will also be on display in Indio. Eventually they are to be carved into beautiful art objects with a total value of $1,000,000.

The Indio gem and mineral show will be free to the public.

Video Program to Show Desert All-Year Activity

A fleet of cameramen and members of the editorial staff of the Los Angeles Times, and television station, KTTV arrived on the desert this week to do a feature story for the paper, and a half hour TV program on the Palm Desert area, and Sans Souci, to be featured as the "Gateway to California."

Lynn Rogers, travel editor of The Times did the travelogue, and Bill Burrud and Bill Steen shot motion pictures for the "Open Road" program on KTTV.

THE SHOW to be viewed on April 5, begins at Sans Souci, since four highways meet there, and travels on to the resort activities in and around Palm Desert.

It covers also the agricultural areas around Indio, and discusses the development of the Palm Desert area which has been so phenomenal in the past two years.

THE FEATURES are a continuation of a series that Lynn Rogers did two years ago when the community was just beginning.

Another idea behind the trek was to capture the year-round idea of the desert, which goes on after the season ends for the fashionable crowd.

The group hopes to be back again around mid-summer during the height of the harvesting season, showing how the Indio area becomes the hub of agricultural activity.

Local rock-hounds will enter their best trophies in this show and will also attend the field trip at 8 a.m. on March 31 to the Orocopia Mountains to search for bloodstone and travertine onyx.

The Desert Hot Springs rock group, under the able leadership of Robert Lee, executive of the Colorado River Association, and 16 newspaper representatives, met at the Sans Souci in Indio this week to discuss the present water controversy, and its effects on the lower part of the Coachella Valley.

The group toured the 40 miles of new canals that have been added on to the main stem in order to irrigate the rapidly expanding produce fields, and gathered for dinner at the Sans Souci to exchange views on the water subject.

Also meeting at the Sans Souci for a similar discussion this week was Howard Fee of the Metropolitan Water District, who appeared with 20 members of the Community Chest Board of Los Angeles, and held an informal conclave on the subject.

With Indio and the surrounding area becoming one of the major agricultural areas in the United States, it was concluded that many necessary changes concerning the water situation will have to be made soon.

Model Home on Display Today at Thousand Palms

Thousand Palms Estate hung out a shingle late last week and announced the opening of its first model home.

Located one block east of 1000 Palms corner, this new subdivision is owned by Walter G. Bovee, a former Washington hotel owner, who fell in love with the desert five years ago. The present tract is not a large one, but the development will eventually comprise 60 acres of land on both sides of Ramon road.

BOVEE CONFESSES that he bought this 1000 Palms property five years ago with subdividing in mind. "This is my first venture into the field of real estate development," he says, "but my faith in the future of this valley is so great that I haven't the slightest doubt about success."

Associates besides Bovee include Charles L. Braham, Long Beach real estate broker; George W. Earl, tract manager and salesmen; and Walter L. Willits, building contractor.

Four homes which are either finished or nearing completion are designed to provide a maximum of comfort and beauty within a moderate price range.

THE HOUSES, varying in size from one to three bedrooms, are pumice block construction with open beam ceilings and sloping roofs, and include such features as picture windows, slab doors finished with a mahogany veneer, copper plumbing and tiled showers. Kitchens are equipped with steel cabinets; living rooms have big, cozy fireplaces constructed of pumice slabs which make the finished effect resemble flagstone.

One of the four homes is already being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Waldeck of Los Angeles. Situated in a grove of young date palms and surrounded by citrus groves and tamarisk hedges, this new subdivision is called the "Garden Spot of the desert."

Ransom Office Announces Exclusive Offering of Two Choice Tracts in Village

Robert Ransom, real estate office, announced this week that two new residential developments had been turned over to him for exclusive sale.

One of these properties, now known as Bel Air Estates, consists of property fronting on the O'Donnell Golf Course which has long been regarded as the choice property in Palm Springs.

This property was acquired by Nate Milnor and Frank Dougherty from the Thomas O'Donnell estate and heretofore has never been offered for sale. While only three sites will be offered for sale this is regarded as a very important development, as nowhere else in Palm Springs is it possible to obtain a home site facing a 90 acre, beautifully landscaped, all grass golf course.

THE SECOND property under the exclusive management of the Ransom office is located in the South Palm Springs area, known as the protected, wind-free area. It is a small exclusive tract with spacious building sites between Palm Springs Estates and Tahquitz Estates. Although it is a view property, all building sites are on a level, which is very unusual. Several attractive homes are now under construction in this subdivision and a model home is now open for inspection.

William Boggess, manager of the brokerage department, announced that Mrs. Dwayne Stachler has been named tract manager and will be in the tract office daily to answer all inquiries and show people through the model home.

A coast-to-coast radio show came and went in a hurry this week as Ralph Edwards' "Truth or Consequences" broadcast originated here from Wards Memorial hall Tuesday night.

Although there was almost no advance notice of the show, it played before a packed house of 500 persons.

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the show featured a man just back from Alaska where he went to pick up his newly pressed suit only to find it had been sent to San Francisco, a soldier whose family was secretly flown to Palm Springs from Oregon to meet him during the broadcast and calls from people attempting to identify Grandmaw Hush.

"How the Palm Springs Women's Club Got Its Start" was the subject of an interesting talk by Mrs. J. R. Macartney at the annual closed business meeting.

A charter member herself, Mrs. Macartney recalled vividly how she and 60 other ladies were invited in 1938 by Mrs. Warren Pinner, elected the first president, to a luncheon at the El Mirador hotel. This followed shortly with another and larger luncheon at the Desert Inn where they were the guests of Mrs. Nellie Coffman.

At these meetings representatives of the state and county Federation of Women's Clubs told of the advantages to a community when its live-wire women band together to bring about the things they believe in and know are for the betterment of that community.

Mrs. Macartney said she felt that in the days when there was so much to do for the town the women were more interested "Unless we have something to fight for which we know is good, something is missing," she concluded.

New business of the club included a motion to purchase a cooler and accept the bid of Tex Driskill subject to approval by the architects, Clark and Frey who had originally presented the blue prints as their contribution towards the birth of the club.

The tea following the meeting was in honor of the charter members and past presidents.

She also urged the members plan to visit veterans in hospital and make a special plea for those veterans hospitalized at Patton. "It is the greatest work we can do," she said.

Mrs. Carlson gave the high lights of the visit of the national president, Mrs. W. C. Reed, to Los Angeles and said that all present were impressed by her great sincerity as she stressed Auxiliary programs.

Following the meeting the executive board met with Mrs. Carlson to plan arrangements for the meeting of the 21st District, both Post and Auxiliary, which will be held here on Sunday April 15. It is estimated some 400 visitors will attend the sessions and luncheon all of which will be at the Wards Memorial building.

Red, White and Blue Ball, Closing Circus, Brilliant Success at Polo Pavilion

One of the most brilliant affairs in Palm Springs social history took place Saturday night at the Polo Pavilion with the Red, White and Blue Ball, which wound up the first section of Circus season with a dramatic party. Decorations for the affair set a spectacular note with great golden eagles suspended from the roof and artistic drapes in red, white and blue. Tables were covered in blue and centered by golden eagles. Music was by Freddie Karger and his orchestra with the singer the popular Constance Moore.

Adding to the glamour of the affair were the headresses of the ladies with Mrs. William Moncrief, in a glittering gold confection, sharing honors with Mrs. Charles Farrell when the prizes were presented. Mrs. Farrell's headdress struck the patriots note of the evening, being a coronet of the flags of the United Nations. Other outstanding headresses were worn by Mrs. James Kemper, Mrs. Frank Dougherty, Mrs. William Keighley, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Bud Graves, Mrs. Kenneth Colborn and Mrs. Burnham Bigelow.

Proceeds from the ball will be donated to a fund for a local USO, according to Mrs. Henry Dillard who was chairman of the outstanding event.

A center of attraction among a hundred tables was that occupied by the Queen of the Circus, Barbara Jean Smith and her court of lovely girls who were escorted by members of the armed services. Ladies of the court included Carol Elaine Naish, Janet Jaynes, Sandra Cordrey and Candi Hughes. A festive event of the evening was the crowning of the queen by Mayor Farrell. The gown worn by the queen was designed and donated by Georgia Bullock and the ladies of her court were in gowns designed by Julie Lynne Chariot.

Among gay tables was one that included Mr. and Mrs. Sol Lesser, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hopps, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bassi-

"That Easter Bonnet"

By MARTEL FERRIS

"In Your Easter Bonnet With a Carrot Top" is much more inviting to the eye of the passing male, as the girls have discovered. So watch out, you naive bachelors; you may be the victim of a chapeau salad, or too late find yourself digging up a fresh Idaho Irish, only to find that the root is firmly attached to a colony of the same variety.

The flippant phrase, "cute to-mato," that we've been tossing around is much more indicative than we've been aware. If your heart skips a beat (who said, beat?) when some lovely vision floats past, don't worry too much as it may settle to normal with your passing, but when your mouth begins to water at the sight of one of those hanging gardens, look out, brother, you may be trapped by your own stomach.

No trick is too bizarre to be tried; they'll wear anything to attract your attention. You just can't be too careful. The moral is: Eat a hearty breakfast before you go to Easter sunrise services this year.

The passe trick of adjusting a stocking seam, or leaning a bit of perfume towards a male's susceptible nostrils is definitely scorned by modern maidens. A bobbing tomato or the flick of a a

Board Seeks to Cut Welfare Bldg. Cost

County Supervisor William Jones said Tuesday supervisors are working on a plan to reduce the cost of the expensive county welfare building at Tenth and Orange streets in the county seat.

Supervisors were rocked back on their heels a few weeks ago when Architect Herman Ruhau informed them it might cost another $50,000 to finish the building on which $190,000 had already been authorized to be spent.

Jones and the other supervisors have criticized the building program but now it is started, they must finish it, they have said. The building was ordered last year by supervisors who have since left office.

adopt the second set of by-laws which had been circulated to all chambers of commerce prior to the meeting. These by-laws favored continuation of a county chamber of commerce tied closely to supervision by the county board of supervisors and set up a procedure for representation based upon supervisory districts.

HERBERT SAMSON the delegate from Palm Springs proposed an amendment before the adoption of the by-laws to change Article VI Sec. 2, to read:

"The Board of Directors (of the county organization) shall consist of one representative from each member organization, to be appointed by the board of directors of that chamber of commerce." Melvin Hanson of Banning and Grady Seltzer of Blythe added their backing to Sampson. Said Hanson: "If any chambers are slighted they'll lose interest." Said Seltzer: "The most democratic way is to have everyone represented and have one vote apiece."

Hanson, Riverside's delegate, took up the defense of the by-laws. "Redistricting will force a change," he said. Then he asked: "Why not accept the by-laws as drawn?"

SAMSON RETURNED to the discussion with the information that the third supervisory district has no chambers of commerce at all, compared to 13 in the fourth supervisory district.

William Dunkerley, Palm Springs Chamber manager and member of the drafting committee was asked to express his views by Thomas L. Clay, West Riverside delegate. Dunkerley pointed out that the new association would not be endangered by a delay and suggested that if details of the by-laws could not be ironed out in one day that time for study might be advisable, and that the by-laws could be adopted at a subsequent meeting.

should have suggested a recess.

S. Thomas Buccarelli, assistant county counsel, who served as legal advisor intervened with the warning: "The association will die if you adjourn without action."

The peacemaker, William Hillyer of Cathedral City, then corrected himself and made the motion to adjourn to "a time certain" which was set for Banning on April 10. This motion passed by more than a majority approval with only three of the twenty-two chambers represented voting against the motion.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By EDITH EDDY WARD

After a two year absence, it was a real treat for Palm Desert residents to see Lynn Rogers, of the Los Angeles Times, and his charming wife, Ruth, return to the desert this weekend for another travelogue. Lynn honored Palm Desert two years ago shortly after the formal opening of the club, and was assigned to cover the phenomenal growth of the community.

With him were Bill Steen and Bill Burnd, producer of "The Open Road" over KTTV, joining with Lynn to do a similar story. We all gathered for an evening of cocktails and dinner, and met again Sunday morning for a Continental breakfast as guests of Fred and Joyce Talbot. Joining us were Beverly Hills columnist, Helen Gould, and her husband, Saul, and daughter, Carol, all staying in Palm Springs for a week. Sunning by the pool were Mr. and Mrs. Sydel Fish of San Marino, and the prominent industrialist, Spike Riggs and his charming wife.

During the day we noticed the Justin Darts of Owl-Rexall fame, and member of the Palm Desert board of governors; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Salvatori, of Bel-Air; and several members of the Doheny family; all staying at Firecliff. Later, as we toured with Lynn Rogers and his group to the Sans

Korean Veteran, Devoted Allan Jones Fan, Realizes Ambition, Thanks to Circus

Thanks to the Fifteenth Annual Desert Circus a devoted fan of Allan Jones finally realized his life-long ambition to meet the famous singer.

It all happened last week when the Circus brought to town nine service men as special guests for the events in the first half of the Fifteenth Circus.

Among the men in uniform was S-Sgt. Jim Perry of the U.S. Marines who was shipped back to America last December from Japan after suffering two wounds and frozen feet in the Korean war. He had led a squad of Marines at the Inchon landing where most of his men were killed or wounded storming Wolmi Island, and had taken part in the frightful "walk-out" from Chojin Reservoir. He narrowly missed amputation of both feet from frostbite.

SOMEONE happened to men-

Dave Sebastian; architect John C. Lindsay and his wife, Diana Lynn; Bob Howard; and Ginger Rogers and Steve Cochran.

Playing the piano in his inimitable style, in addition to the Guadalajara Trio that has become such a part of the Doll House.

Earlier this week we noticed A. Ludlow Kramer back for a few days, but just barely after a forced landing, and a late arrival in the dark, in a plane not equipped for night flying. His wife, Brenda, was not with him this trip, since she is preparing to take her standard show poodle back to New York for a forthcoming national exhibit.

All in all, it looks as though the Easter crowd this year will surpass anything Palm Desert has ever seen, with practically all of the hotels and lodges reserved solidly until late April. It is interesting also to note that the formal end of the season will not be observed so strongly this year, with more and more places planning to remain open until the summer.

tion at Rogers Ranch Club where the Circus Opening Luncheon was being held that one of the Circus deputies that day was Villager Allan Jones who later thrilled the large audience with his singing.

"Do you mean Allan Jones the singer?" asked the Marine. Assured that he was the famous singer, Sgt. Perry asked if it would be possible to meet him. "Ever since I heard Mr. Jones in 'Showboat' and some of his other great productions when I was a mere kid, he has been my hero," he confided.

SO THE POPULAR Allan was searched out from his Kangaroo Court duties and the marine hero was presented to him. Perry explained what an event in his life the meeting was and asked if he could have an autograph.

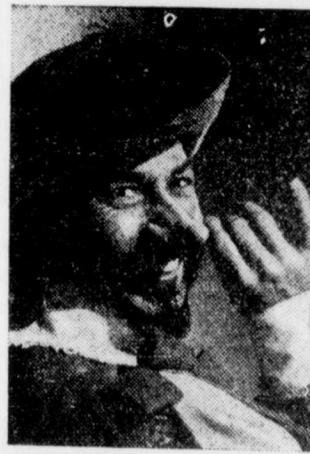

"We'll do better than that," said Jones: "I have one of those one-minute cameras here. We'll have our picture taken and then I'll autograph that."

Circus President Frank Bennett wielded the camera and "Deputy Sheriff" Jones, with his western artillery showing prominently, and Marine Sgt. Perry stood up big as life for their picture. Allan then autographed the picture and handed it to Perry amid profuse thanks.

THROUGHOUT the rest of the day Sgt. Perry showed the photo to nearly everyone he met and told them the story of how he had realized his life-long ambition to meet face to face his singing hero.

"This is really one of the big days of my life," he told Circus officials. "It isn't everyone who gets to really meet his boyhood hero like I have to do."

Earlier this week we noticed

Valerie Jean Date Shop, Once a Roadside Stand, Now a Desert Institution

One day last week an automobile rolled to a stop in front of a roadside stand. The driver of the vehicle, in his late thirties, stepped to the counter and asked for the proprietor.

This scene is enacted in thousands of times a day in southern California but what the man said when the proprietor greeted him is actually what makes this story about that roadside stand and its owner and operator one of the most amazing success stories in the country.

"MY FATHER used to stop here with me when I was a boy," and now here I am with my children stopping to buy some dates just as my father did," said the visitor pointing to his automobile where two children and his wife sat.

Russ Nicoll, owner of the Valerie Jean Date Shop extended his hand, smiled, thanked the man for his visit and said:

"I remember your father very well. Throughout the years many children and even grandchildren of my early time patrons stop here. I'm always glad to see them."

THAT SCENE, in considerably more than a fashion, is the reason why an inanimate structure such as the Valerie Jean Date Shop can be used (and has been used by more than thirty national publications) as the subject of a success story.

Located in the midst of Coachella Valley's date country, the only place in the Western Hemisphere where dates are cultured and grown, the Valerie Jean Date Shop had its humble beginning October 28, 1928. Since that day, due to the canny marketing ability of the owner, the fame of this road side stand has spread nationally.

Today the Valerie Jean Date Shop packs and ships in excess of a quarter million pounds of dates to every part of the nation and to many foreign countries.

THE FOREIGN COUNTRY angle reached an all-time amazing twist the other day when Nicoll received a request from the Egyptian ambassador in New York City, for a packaged sample of each variety of dates sold by Nicoll and the various byproducts the Valerie Jean Date Shop prepares from dates including its specially prepared date cake. The Egyptian informed Nicoll he was sending the samples on to his own country for commercial study.

This request is amazing in itself and quite complimentary, when it is remembered that Egypt has been growing dates for more than 2000 years. The ambassador followed this order with still another one—an order for a five pound specially packed box of dates for his own personal use.

THESE SIDE-LIGHTS dealing with the fame of the Valerie Jean Date Shop has in the belief of many, projected the Coachella Valley date country into the national limelight and has aided in no small manner in focusing commercial marketing interest of the date. The Literary Digest as well as other magazines long ago "smelled" a story, colorful and romantic in the marketing methods of the Valerie Jean Date Shop.

Camp Haan Not Out of Running as Academy Site

Camp Haan (now known officially as West March Air Force Base) is still in the running for the site of the Air Force's proposed "West Point of the Air," Congressman John Phillips of Banning asserted Tuesday.

Promotion of the Haan site had recently been written off as a lost cause when the Air Force released a "boiled-down" list of seven sites still under consideration. Camp Beale, near Marysville, was the only California location remaining on the list.

Yesterday in Washington, however, the California delegation urged the air force to put the Academy in California and Congressman Phillips said the Haan site was "still in the running."

New Ultra-Luxury Hotel, Holiday House, to be Opened in Palm Springs October 1

Come next October 1 Palm Springs will be boasting of another ultra-luxurious apartment hotel resort expected to cost in excess of a quarter of a million dollars.

Holiday House, 200 West Arenas road, now in the last stages of completion is owned by Lloyd S. Whaley, owner of the Home Investment Company, Long Beach. A visitor, with his family for the past ten years, Whaley is credited as a builder and land developer, with the construction of more than 5,000 homes in Long Beach and 2,000 in his own subdivision called University City near the coast.

He is not a newcomer in hotel and apartment house operation. He is the owner of the popular Ridgewood Heights Manor and Las Lomas Apartment in his home city.

"Holiday House is the type of apartment hotel I have always dreamed of," declared Whaley, and now I am going to see that dream come true."

He added that luxury with a capital "L," as a lure for discriminating patrons, has been built into every corner of Holiday House. Among the facilities the hotel will boast of is:

A heated swimming pool, putting greens, shuffle board games, outdoor cabana for day and night functions, English bicycles for tenants and other recreational facilities.

THE BUILDING which covers 10,500 square feet, will contain 13 apartments most of them with fully equipped kitchens and breakfast nooks. All units have individually controlled electrical heating and refrigerated air-conditioning.

Another outstanding feature according to Herbert Burns who designed Holiday House, each apartment is soundproof, wired for radio and recordings that come from a main control board. Mr. and Mrs. Whaley who will reside in their own private apart-

Safety Program for City Sought by Soroptimists

Soroptimists are cooperating with the recently-organized Parent-Teacher group in a safety program for Palm Springs. Its object is to teach safety lessons in the home in a concerted effort to reduce accidents.

Dr. Etta C. Jeancou, eminent eye physician of Los Angeles, will attend the Soroptimist luncheon meeting April 3 to discuss safety.

Dr. Jeancou will be a guest at the Desert Inn during her stay here. Manager Earl Coffman's mother sponsored the early Soroptimist club here.

At Holiday House are the parents of two married sons, Lloyd S. Jr. and Rodney and a daughter Jane 11 years old who will enter school in Palm Springs next season. The new apartment hotel will be under the supervision of a manager who will also reside on the premises.

Village School Bus Plan is Model for U.S.

Safety Film, Taken Here Put on Tour

Following shooting of pictures of Palm Springs school transportation system in action last week George Bond, transportation superintendent, said that the system will be seen by school boards throughout the nation when the film is completed in the next few weeks.

Moving pictures of the system in operation were taken with the cooperation of local police and California Highway patrol officials.

R. A. Bainbridge, producer for Progressive Pictures, supervised the movies of the local school bus system with its students safety officers in action throughout the city.

TO BE ENTITLED "The School Bus and You," the production was assisted by Captain A. R. Hastings and Sgt. Roland Gausche of the CPH and Officer Howard Poe of the local police department.

Bond said the pictures of the local student safety patrol officers in action will be shown in 600 counties throughout the nation as a model of school safety.

Local Lions had a busy schedule of events at their regular weekly meeting at Chi Chi club yesterday afternoon.

The annual Lions-sponsored student speakers contest was also begun with students from Palm Springs high participating. Speaking on "American Voters' Responsibility," the winners will be sent to the zone final at Coachella Valley Union High March 28 at 8 p.m.

Several new members were indoctrinated into Lion ranks: Murray Barrick, department store head; Cliff Campbell, hay, grain and feed; Dr. Julius Kaplan, dentist; Philip Lester, building; Bob Morris, clothing shop owner, and Leo Paquette, auto agency.

Chairman of the day was Alex Hammond.

INDIAN COUNCIL FIRES TO BLAZE TONIGHT AT POLO GROUNDS PAGEANT

For the first time in California's long and fabulous history the Indian Grand Council Fire will flame into existence tonight at the Polo Grounds at 8:30 p.m. The audience at this year's inter-tribal Indian ceremonial will not see a pageant or professional entertainment, but instead a real, authentic council of Indian people! These Indians are not gathering here next week to perform in the usual type of public Indian show. They are coming here at the request of their friends to join together in pow-wow for one glorious evening of singing and dancing around the sacred fire to relieve again those wild romantic days of freedom and fighting.

Many of the sacred rituals have never been performed for a white audience. The reason they are being given now is because the Indians are in complete charge of their own country.

Indian avenue.

The entire side of the 1936 coupe cab was burned by the blaze which firemen said may have been started by youths playing in the car.

Damage was set at $100.

They all feel it is time the white man let them present their very sacred ceremonials by themselves. It is for this reason, and no other, that those in attendance will see something never before seen in this country.

To add an official note to the council fire, the chief of grand council has extended an invitation to Gov. Earl Warren of California. The Indians feel that the governor will be interested in seeing the natives of his own state doing their age-old rituals in honor of him and the others in the grandstands tonight.

Indian culture is not dying, nor is the Indian vanishing. However, there have been changes, for tribes that were once traditional enemies now are tending toward an Indian Brotherhood. It is hoped that because the Indians are in complete charge of their own country.

The Indian people extend an invitation to all to heed the call to council at 8:30 p.m. for it is written . . . "Let them praise His name in the dance."

Teel Takes Palm Springs Golf Crown from Stellar Field with Subpar 201

Las Vegas Golfer Tops Given by 1

Charlie Teel fought off the challenges of some of the nation's top golfers and focused the eyes of the link world on himself this week as he won the 16th annual Palm Springs Invitational Golf tournament this week.

The Las Vegas photographer displayed exceptional competitive spirit along with a deadly short game to fire rounds of 64-70-67 for a 54-hole total of 201, nine under par.

HARRY GIVAN of Seattle followed with 202, Bruce McCormick with a 204 along with Johnny Dawson and Bud McKinney were bracketed at 206. McKinney copped first in low net honors with a 200.

Although climaxed by the three-day championship event at O'Donnell Golf club, class A and senior play last week provided a few surprises.

IN CLASS A competition Dr. John Litwinenec of Red Hill fired a 145 for 36 holes to win low gross honors in the 6-14 handicap group. Low net in the event went to Mike Banks of Seattle and H. H. Rhoads of Los Angeles country club who each shot 150 minus 22 for 128 nets.

In the 15-24 handicap event in class A competition Ralph Singer of Wilshire grossed 161 and E. K. Hartman and J. J. O'Brien each netted 127 for top honors in their class.

SENIOR PLAY, last Thursday, featured four classes split up according to age groups. Class one, 50 years to 59, saw A. F. McClellan of San Diego shoot a startling 38-32-70 for low gross. H. G. Schiff of California country club netted 62.

In the 60 to 64 year group Virginia's Franklin Robinson clubbed an agile 71 and Dr. C. L. Coffman of San Gabriel took advantage of a 14-point handicap for a low net of 61.

E. M. MAULE of Riviera grossed 75 in the 65 to 69 year bracket and J. J. O'Brien netted 60 among the boys eligible to collect social security.

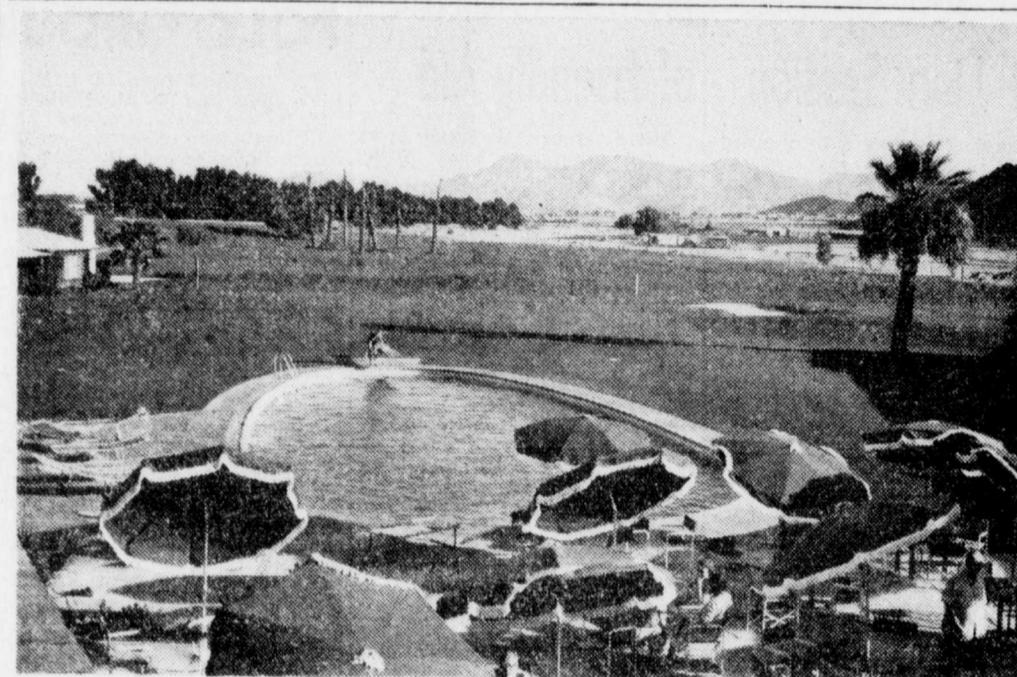

The granddaddies of the tourney, those an ancient 70 or over, found that three of their number refused to give up the ghost and knotted in a three-way tie for low gross. J. H. Ballinger of Seattle, Dr. Charles Milliken of Hacienda and Chase Garfield of Wilshire all romped through their 18 holes with 80s.

THE RACE for low net in the 70 plus bracket was even more confusing. No less than four old-timers utilized their handicaps to earn a 65 net.

They were J. E. "Dad" French of Palm Springs, Dr. Charles

Elsinore, Hemet Follow Forecast,

Elsinore, pre-season favorite to cop the RCL 1951 horseshoe title, lived up to procrastinators' predictions last Thursday as they tamed the San Jacinto Tigers on the Bengals' home ground, 4 to 3, in the only league game of the afternoon that remotely resembled a pitcher's duel.

Beaumont's pitching staff had what was called "an off day" Thursday as they hosted the Hemet Bulldogs who in turn bit their hosts for 14 runs while allowing five.

Perris, picked last in pre-season guessing, surprised spectators at the home town ball diamond Thursday afternoon as they upset Banning, 9 to 3, in a walkfest.

Field events get underway at 1 p.m. and track activity starts at 1:30 p.m.

Milliken, C. A. Rees of Hacienda and Matt Davison of Flint, Mich.

will be match instead of medal and will feature outstanding golfers and celebrities from across the nation.

A Calcutta dinner Thursday night at the club will kick off the tournament and there will be events every evening during the play. Climax of the social events will be presentation of trophies at a buffet dinner on Sunday. Hicks and Dawson have promised the course will be at its best to accommodate the some 250 linksters who will participate.

Coachella Trips Indians in RCL Opener, 10 to 8

"There ain't no justice," is what Pitcher Don Henson of Palm Springs high is probably saying this week. Henson was toppled from a hero's role to that of just another losing pitcher last Thursday afternoon at the Polo Grounds as Coachella high scalped the Braves 10-8 in the Riverside County League opener.

Henson had hurled a no-hitter game through the regulation seven innings but the Redskin defense had allowed five unearned Arab runs to cross the plate sending the contest into an eight inning 5-5 deadlock.

COACHELLA UNLOADED on Henson in the final frame for three hits, five runs and the ball game. Winning pitcher was Bill Yensen.

Yensen set the Redskins down on eight hits and six earned runs. Yensen struck out 12 and walked only five.

Preito scored the first Indian run after tripling to start the Redskin first inning. He then added two more singles to tie Henson for top batting honors. Preito led in RBI's with three.

THE INDIANS were two runs behind going into the last half of the seventh, but two Arab errors and hits by Henson and Johnny Black kept the Redskin chances alive.

Palm Springs pushed across three runs in the eighth for their best inning but it wasn't enough.

Yensen and Bryant; Henson and Black.

Women Golfers Take Over Here From April 1 to 4

Following a week of tournaments in which men ruled the links at O'Donnell Golf club, the distaff side began warmups this weekend for the 16th annual Women's Invitational Golf championship April 1 through 4.

Opening day, Sunday, mixed foursomes of not more than 10 strokes difference in handicaps of partners will literally start the ball rolling.

Monday will see a putting contest at O'Donnell followed by a driving and approaching workout later in the day.

Tuesday and Wednesday the big guns will be unfurled for the "championship proper." The meat of this competition are 36 holes of medal play, 18 holes on Tuesday and the final 18 on Wednesday.

Rainiers to Close Stand Here Sunday

Following yesterday's Seattle Rainiers - Pittsburgh baseball game at the Polo Grounds, there will be no more home games for the Suds until Sunday afternoon when the Angels help the locals close the spring exhibition series.

Today the Suds travel to Riverside for their final game with Portland, the fourth meeting of the two clubs.

Discuss Plans for Net Tourney

Tentative plans have been laid for organization of an April city tennis tournament here. Howard Haddock, city recreation director, announced this week.

"I have begun negotiations for use of courts, donation of trophies and other details," he said. "After March most of the spring events will be behind us and we'll have more time for a local tennis tourney which I had planned for March."

Games will probably begin early in June.

Softball Loops to Start in June

The city of Palm Springs definitely plans to sponsor a city softball league this summer as it has in years past. City Recreation Director Howard Haddock announced recently.

Purchase of bats and balls sufficient for a season of play has already been made and the city has other equipment on hand.

Games will probably begin early in June.

make the city basketball league a success.

Haddock thanked the school district for use of the Palm Springs high gym, the merchants and clubs who supported teams and the players themselves who appeared for games two nights weekly.

Suds Ready for Opening of Coast Loop

Seattle Closing Its Second Spring Grind at Polo Grounds

Seattle's hustling Rainiers have only to add a final touch of polish this weekend to their spring training stint at the Polo Grounds before departing Sunday for Los Angeles and the opening of the 1951 Pacific Coast League season Tuesday night.

On the basis of spring performances the Suds will be favored to emerge victors in their first week-long series against the Angels who have not exhibited any great potential so far in the exhibition campaign.

ONLY TWO contests remain on the Rainier's schedule—Portland this afternoon at Riverside and the first-for Angels Sunday afternoon at the Polo Grounds. The largest crowd of the waning season is expected to witness the final game here, the first Sunday home contest which pits two good ball clubs against one another.

Meanwhile, the Suds have spent a busy week both at home and on the road making a good exhibition name for themselves.

LAST THURSDAY the seemingly ever-present Angels were bested at the Polo Grounds by our side, 8 to 5. Friday the Suds licked the Pittsburgh Pirates for the first time, 9 to 4 and Saturday Portland was the victim, 11 to 6.

Sunday the Hermosa Beach All-Stars brought slightly more than a dozen players to the Polo Grounds for a 10-5 licking at the hands of the Suds. Monday they pounced on Pittsburgh for the second straight time and handed the Bucs a 9-1 licking. Tuesday Portland visited the local park and bopped Seattle, 3 to 1.

AS THE RAINIERS finished rounding into form, many close spectators seemed to feel that Vern Kindsfater, who appeared in 48 games for the Sickmen last year, has developed ahead of his mates enough to get the nod as Seattle's ace. Chances are, in this role, he will be the starting pitcher against Los Angeles Tuesday night.

Meanwhile, civic and business leaders joined this week in wishing the Seattle organization luck in the 1951 PCL campaign. Most locals and certainly all baseball fans, were delighted to have the Rainiers here for the second straight season and look for the Suds to emerge for the coast pennant race with a better record than last year's.

LECTURER EXPLAINS HOW CHRISTIAN SCIENCE WORKS

"Many years ago, near a busy city of the Orient, a beggar sat at the roadside begging. Not only was he blind to the light of the sun, but he could see nothing before him but endless days of sitting in the heat and dust, a beggar," declared Archibald Carey in beginning a discussion of his subject, "Christian Science: How it Works," in a public lecture delivered Monday evening, at the Woman's Clubhouse, given under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Palm Springs. Mrs. Elizabeth McCoy introduced Mr. Carey of Detroit, Michigan, who is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

"One day as he sat by the roadside he heard the noise of many feet coming toward him along the way," the lecturer said. "Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. As the sound came nearer, he heard eager voices talking of the wonderful works that were done by this new teacher. They said that he had healed leprosy and blindness, that nothing seemed impossible to him," the speaker continued. Blind Bartimaeus had heard of Jesus.

People said he was like David, and that the power of God was with him. They said that he used this power of God to heal those who came to him for help. With a great surge of hope the blind man cried out, "Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me." Those who were near by tried to keep him from interrupting Jesus, but he continued to cry, "Thou son of David, have mercy on me."

Jesus heard him. He stood still and told his followers to bring the blind man to him. Without a moment's hesitation, Bartimaeus cast away the garment that was the mark of a beggar and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him, "What wilt thou that I should do unto thee?" The blind man answered, "Lord, that I might receive my sight."

How that prayer wells up from the heart of humanity! "That I might receive my sight!"—that we may see what to do, what course to take, how to meet the problems that confront us! How men are searching for the answer!

Jesus knew the answer. Realizing the presence and power of divine Love to meet every human need, he said, "Receive thy sight." Immediately Bartimaeus received his sight and followed Jesus in the way. Not only was the physical blindness healed, but the mental blindness of indecision and unperceived opportunity was gone. Without hesitation he followed Jesus in the way—the way of loving service to mankind, of understanding, grateful obedience to God (Mark 10:46-52, Luke 18:35-43).

Let us look at this incident frankly and objectively, first to see just what took place, and secondly, to see what laws were utilized which could be practically useful to us. But before going into the methods used, let us get a complete picture of what Jesus did to Bartimaeus. He not only healed his eyesight; he also lifted him out of what we have called mental blindness. Bartimaeus saw nothing to do but sit by the roadside and beg. He was blind to any other possibility. Many blind people have seen opportunities for useful occupation and progress, in spite of the physical handicap of blindness. This man was not only physically blind, but he was also mentally blind, unable to see the possibilities of activity that could bring happiness to himself and others.

Then notice what a transformation took place. Not only was his physical blindness healed, but his mental blindness, his inability to recognize opportunities and make decisions, was also gone. He threw away the cloak of a beggar, abandoned his place at the roadside, and leaving behind him his previous associations, followed Jesus in the way.

It would be hard to overestimate the importance of this second healing. This healing of mental blindness. At first glance, it may not seem as spectacular as the healing of his eyes. But think what a difference it made to him! Not even the healing of his physical vision could have had more far-reaching effects.

Is not this release from mental blindness one of the greatest needs of humanity today? How often we say, or hear others say "I can't see what to do next;" "I can't see to get what I need;" "I can't see where to turn." Whether the need is for health, or money, or a home, or for opportunities for progress and freedom, we hear the same plaintive, baffled cry, "I can't see."

is this not blindness, as tragic as the lack of physical sight? And as we see the problems before us, do we not all re-echo the cry of blind Bartimaeus, "Lord, that I might receive my sight?"

Spiritual Vision

What is the mental or spiritual vision that can overcome mental blindness? You have it said that we see only with the physical eyes and that they control our vision. But suppose two men were looking at a printed page in a book. Both have equally normal physical vision, but one is able to read and the other is not. Both can see equally well the black letters on the white page. But the one who can read sees not only the letters on the page, he also sees the ideas conveyed by the words in the book. They are both looking at the same thing; but one sees only the black and white outline of letters, while the other sees the Lord's Prayer! The man who cannot read is blind to the ideas that the other man can see.

How can the man who cannot be released from this mental blindness? By learning to read. His blindness is not dependent upon his eyes, could not be remedied by magnifying glasses. Only as he learns to read, to see ideas in this manner, can such blindness be overcome. As his understanding increases, his blindness disappears. The greater his understanding, the more he can see in each page of the book. What he is able to see depends upon his understanding.

Jesus referred to this mental blindness when he said, "Ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?" (Matt. 16:3). The Psalmist yearns for the mental and spiritual vision that will heal this blindness when he prays, "Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law" (Ps. 119:18).

Since what one understands controls what he is able to see, our environment is evidently largely controlled by our capacity to see. A man who could not read might be in the midst of a library of interesting and stimulating books and yet might consider his environment held nothing of interest. Let him learn to read, and he would find himself in an entirely different environment, satisfying and inspiring. His environment would change as his ability to see increased. So his environment might be said to be dependent upon what he is able to see.

When we stop to think of it, how practically useful we find this ability to see things that cannot be seen by the physical eye. If you are planning to build a house, your ideas take shape in thought, and you begin to see what you would like to build. You talk it over with a builder. He begins to see what you have in mind, and the ideas become more concrete. Plans and specifications are drawn, and the carpenters and masons and those who will furnish the materials see the project more clearly. The materials are prepared in accordance with this mental picture. The hardness of stone must yield to the impact of this mental concept, until the stone is molded and shaped to the plans. The strength of steel, the resistance of wood, yield to the substance and power of ideas until the materials are assembled, the building is built, and the mental concept of the builder stand forth in visible and tangible expression.

Prayer

How does Christian Science explain the miracles of Jesus and give us the vision that will enable us to make use of the same laws which he used? As we begin to study the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, we find that the first chapter is on the subject of prayer, because prayer is absolutely essential in gaining an understanding of this Science. As we study this chapter, we realize that prayer, as understood in Christian Science, is very different from the popular thought about prayer. Since God must be infinite Mind, knowing all, there can be nothing accomplished by attempting to tell God in prayer something that He does not already know. Since "God is love" (I John 4:16), unchanging Love, having infinite intelligence, there can be no point in attempting through prayer to change His good purposes or to dissuade Him from carrying out His will. There would be no advantage, even if it were possible in persuading God to be less than loving and wise.

But if we see prayer as a means by which, through communion with God as Mind, we can gain the ability to see and use right ideas we realize how important this true prayer can be in bringing to us the ability to see as Jesus did when he brought the light that lifted Bartimaeus out of blindness.

True prayer, then, is communion with God. In order to communicate with God as Mind, we must know what God is. Believing that God is changeable and can make mistakes, or that He is sometimes unjust or unkind, or that He is limited by time or space, would hinder our communion with God. Attempting to communicate with such a God, a God that does not exist, would not be prayer in the true sense. It would tend to blind us to the facts it could not bring the clear vision of intelligent understanding.

So the effectiveness of prayer is safeguarded by an understanding of what God is. Christian Science teaches that God is unchanging Principle, governing the universe in perfect harmony. It refers to God as ultimate Truth, upon which all the facts of the universe are based. It explains that God is unlimited Mind, completely intelligent, infinitely wise, knowing everything that can be known. It shows that God, being infinitely intelligent, must fully discern and appreciate the goodness and harmony of His creation, that His very being must be Love. As He is necessarily the foundation of everything that expresses life, God is Life itself, resisting and overcoming anything that would harm or destroy the eternal identity and perfection of His creation. And Christian Science teaches that God is Spirit. As Spirit, God is everywhere, always. No distance can separate us from Him; no space is too small or inaccessible for the operation of His irresistible power. This is the God with whom we can commune in constant prayer. As we gain through prayer a clearer vision of what God is, we find that this brings faith. This is not the mystical faith of blind belief that may temporarily appear to produce remarkable results but will eventually lead to disappointment and disillusionment. This is a sound faith that is founded upon facts. When you understand the multiplication table, you have full faith in it. A fact that is based upon an understanding of Truth is very different from mysticism or fanaticism. A faith that is founded on facts can never be shaken. It grows stronger with use. As we commune with God in true prayer, as we learn to see His nature as it is, our growing understanding brings this unshakable, powerful faith. The Bible says, "The prayer of faith shall save the sick" (James 5:15). True prayer brings the ability to behold as Jesus did the perfect man of God's own likeness and with this correct view of man to the operation of His irresistible power. This is the God with whom we can commune in constant prayer. As we gain through prayer a clearer vision of what God is, we find that this brings faith. This is not the mystical faith of blind belief that may temporarily appear to produce remarkable results but will eventually lead to disappointment and disillusionment. This is a sound faith that is founded upon facts. When you understand the multiplication table, you have full faith in it. # Contract Let for Irrigation at New Park

Hood Construction Company Awarded North End Park Job

Hood Construction company of Linwood was awarded the contract for installation of an irrigation system at North End park this week. The concern was the lowest bidder, $12,384, among several vying for the job.

The irrigation system will water about two-thirds of the park area including the new palm trees, olive trees and plants.

At this week's council session Jack Schulman, speaking for the Hotel and Apartment Owners association, asked that the council attempt to proceed with North End park construction as rapidly as possible for the convenience of Palm Springs visitors.

Child, 6, Darts Into Street, Hit

A six-year-old Burbank child was bruised Sunday afternoon when an automobile driven by Gerald E. McKinney, 17, of 210 West Sunny Dunes road, struck him at Palm Canyon drive and Ramon road.

McKinney told police that the boy, Danny C. Vincent, darted behind a stopped car at the crosswalk so that he was unable to see him.

McKinney was traveling only 12 miles an hour at the time of contact and police did not cite him.

O. A. "TORGY" TORGERSON

In 1947 the Coachella Valley looked like a good place to retire after the rigors of Alaska banking. Or at least so thought O. A. Torgerson, Seattle and Alaska banker for 36 years and operator of the Bank of Kodiak for seven of the most hectic years in the territory's history.

Born in Cooperstown, N. D., Torgerson enrolled in extension courses at the University of Minnesota and the University of Washington before entering his banking career in the northwest.

He went to Kodiak in 1940 and stayed until he settled in

On July 11, 1949, the Desert

Bank opened its doors in that community and slightly more than a year later, Sept. 5, 1950, a modern branch was opened in Palm Springs. Next, it will be Indio because that is where, he says, a great opportunity for service lies and he cannot rest with a job half done.

With Torgerson in Cathedral City is his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Wameiling, also lives in that community.

Torgerson is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking in addition to his university courses.

Formal Request Filed by Rogers for Pavilion Use

Herb Rogers, Palm Springs Playhouse producer, formally asked city council if he could bring his troupe back to the Village next season for another run at the Polo Grounds Pavilion. Although the council generally agreed that the group should be allowed to return, Councilman Earl Strebe, theater owner, asked that the issue be studied in committee of the whole to consider rental terms more advantageous to the city.

City Manager Russell Rink said the Playhouse attendance is better this season than last year and that the city should net about $800 from the operation. Council decided to act on Strebe's suggestion and submitted the question to the committee.

Bunker Named Deputy Attorney by City Council

City council formally accepted Assistant City Attorney Warren Slaughter's resignation this week, effective March 15, and appointed a successor, Jerry Bunker, 29, of Los Angeles.

Slaughter resigned to become deputy district attorney for Riverside county, a job which will take him to Indio about two days each week, and to set up a private practice in Palm Springs. He will maintain offices here in the Desert Bank building.

Desert Art Center

The Cathedral City Women's Club became the first club in the valley to take out a $25 yearly sustaining membership in the Desert Art Center, whose headquarters is located in their area. Mrs. Curt Ring, president, said that the support of art projects is one of the chief requirements in a well rounded club program as set forth by Federation year book. She said it had been the recommendation of their art chairman, Margaret Davidson, that the Cathedral club be the first to give concrete evidence of its support of this outstanding new valley-wide project.

chairman of the committee of public spirited volunteer workers who started the Art Center less than a year ago, said it was important to the healthy growth of the Center that it become part of the program of all clubs of both men and women, if it is to achieve quickly its goal of making Coachella Valley one of the best known of all national art and cultural shrines in America. "We have more to offer artists here in the way of scenery and outdoor living than any other place. We are closer to more recognized established art centers such as San Diego, La Jolla, Laguna, Carmel and Los Angeles. The finest artists in the world have been making this their winter Mecca but we have never, up to now, taken advantage of this nor offered them the means to stay here for longer periods by establishing classes. Winter residents are constantly asking for better facilities to take art work, famous artists are asking for studio space to teach—and we have had nothing to offer. The purchase of the Marsden Foundation buildings and grounds will supply these facilities," she said, "and the more yearly sustaining club memberships we have the better for that project too."

Visitor's Death Laid to Suicide

Deputy Coroner Robert L. Drake Monday ruled the death of a Victoria, B.C. visitor at Desert Hot Springs as "suicide" after an investigation.

Law enforcement officers said that the dead man, Samuel Clack, 57, had been sent to Desert Hot Springs for a rest. He was believed to be despondent and perhaps mentally ill. Clack, a state trust company manager in Victoria, hung himself at Desert Trail Ranch. He had been

TRAVEL--ALONG

With JAN and GEORGE OLMAN

Palm Springs goes to Hawaii after the season, our Villagers tour to Hawaii will leave on the May 16th sailing of the SS Lurline—five days of shipboard fun—and then to avoid the "packing and unpacking" problems—after our aloha welcome at Honolulu, we'll leave by car for the airport and fly to Kauai Island—to the charm and quiet of Kauai Inn. After two days of touring the Garden Island—we'll fly to the big island and visit Hilo, then two nights at the beautiful Kona Inn. Fly to Honolulu and seven heavenly days at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. We'll return to the Royal in time for their famous Hula-laue (picnic around the other side of the island with George Kahapau and the Royal Hawaiian Serenaders accompanying the group)—we'll have a Luau—a Japanese evening—and last of all, we'll be guests at the Moana Hotel Aloha Party the night before our return home on the Lurline! Palm Springs to Hawaii Party!

It's true—about Peru! The tourist dollar does go far—and the cost of transportation is—by freighter from this coast $375 to $400 one way (10% off the roundtrip)—by air from Los Angeles $80 roundtrip.

Swiss Education Tours — for several highly successful years, the Swiss Educational Service on the desert area since Feb. 19.

His wife and a son, Rod, survive Clack in Victoria. Wiefels and Son chapel reported. The deceased was a native of England before coming to Canada.

has operated educational tours to Europe including the summer study courses at famous universities. Again this year they offer a tour of nine weeks in Europe—five spent in visiting Europe's most interesting and romantic cities—Paris, Nice, Geneva, Florence, Rome, Venice, Milan, and London—all the fascinating cities on the TWA routing—then four weeks devoted to a choice of courses at either the University of Geneva, the Catholic University of Fribourg, or the summer school of European Studies in Zurich. The Institute of University Studies Abroad offers courses at the University of Dublin; the University of Madrid; Oxford; Sorbonne at Paris—and time spent touring the countries of southern Europe.

Canadian Rockies and Pacific Northwest—Laughlin Tours, after completing another most successful Mardi Gras tour, is now arranging the 1951 Canadian Tour! They use only the best hotels—Banff Springs, Chateau Lake Louise, Jasper Park Lodge, Empress in Victoria. Deluxe staterooms on the steamship between Seattle and Victoria—first class streamlined trains—and all arrangements planned for your convenience and pleasure. They leave Los Angeles weekly commencing June 24. Visit the famous Bucharts Gardens in Victoria—Banff—Bow Valley—Moraine Lake—Lake Louise—Emerald Lake—Yoho Valley plenty of leisure time—and you can stay longer if you like!

Almost Time for the Big Fish—about the end of March—the first part of April, the marlin and sailfish are scheduled to "run" at La Paz and at Mazatlan! And only $62.20 roundtrip La Paz from Tijuana. The hotel situation in Mazatlan is quite a problem and advance reservations necessary. And at Acapulco—the Salfish Rodeo is scheduled for April 12-14. Here, as in Mexico City, the hotel problem is serious and hotels and fishing boats must be reserved ahead.

To and From South Africa—The Farrell Lines have excellent new ships from New York to Capetown and Durban—carrying about 90 passengers—and time between ships for touring South Africa—return to New York on the next ship or by Union Castle to England!

Stella Polaris to Europe—after her round-the-world cruise, the Stella Polaris will leave New Orleans May 26 for Havana, St. Thomas, Funchal, Casablanca, the fascinating international city of Tangier, Portugal, Lisbon, and across the Bay of Biscay to the English Channel—to Tilbury! There the cruise ends—28 days at sea on this Norwegian cruise ship carrying 170 passengers.

It is with a deep sense of regret that this comparative parvenu feels impelled to pay verbal tribute to the gallant Leader who for many years has fought a great rear-guard action in a cause that was lost when the squeak of the ubiquitous gasoline buggy began to replace the voices of the turtle and the desert canary calling to his (or her) mate.

We have noticed with nostalgic regret the gradual disappearance of many of the native denizens of the desert. Gones are the coyotes with their taunting nocturnal serenades. Waking in the once still night, we now hear only speeding cars with loads of loaded passengers hustling from whither to whence.

It's getting too crowded around here for the health of any genuine desert rat. The city rats are pouring in by the thousands. Hundreds of them have staked claims and thrown up shacks styled for gracious living, with patio, heated swimming pool, lanai, bar and built-in BQ, for sale, only $47,500 if you hurry. Many of these have become more or less addicted to desert ratting in the grand modern manner; but the real McCoy's are either passing out or getting out. Fortunately there is plenty more desert.

And so the探險 of our literary Last Frontiersman has an element of inevitability. He is going where there is more elbowroom, and we can't blame him. But there will be an unfillable vacancy around here when there is no more Harry Oliver at the Thousand Palms hacienda where "Ramona" never slept but had a darn good time!

Impressive Parade to Mark Arabian Horse Show Sunday

"Palm Springs will see a sight never before witnessed in this part of the country Sunday," A. E. "Cammie" Cameron, chairman of the first annual Palm Springs Arabian Horse Show, said this week. "Twenty-one pure-blooded Arabian stallions will be paraded at the Polo Grounds Sunday morning," he said. "This is one of the most impressive sights in the world of horses and few people have ever had the opportunity to see so many fine beasts of this quality together."

From 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday the all-Arabian show will take place at the Polo Grounds under the auspices of the Arabian Horse association of Southern California.

CAMERON, treasurer of the sponsoring organization, said that the association has received several late entries and expects to enter at least 150 horses in the two-day spectacle. At least 1000 owners, their families and Arabian horse fans are expected to be here for the show.

Morning shows will feature breeding classes with winners in the events entering the finals for the title of "best horse in show." Winners in each age class, from yearlings through four-year-olds, will receive trophies.

AFTERNOONS will be reserved for working competition and events displaying junior horsemanship, open competition for English and western pleasure classes, fine harness, dressage, stock horses, hackamores, jumping, western trail horses and western pleasure classes.

The service will be conducted by Rabbi Isaac E. Bloch, and Robert Morris. Peter Linden will render a special musical program, accompanied by Mrs. Bruce Koplow, at the organ.

The guest speaker, Miss Mildred Fisher, was the only woman to serve in Europe as resettlement officer of the American Joint Distribution Committee, a national Jewish philanthropic organization. Her topic will be "Displaced Persons—Their Resettlement." Services commence at 8 o'clock.

"It is fitting that this annual event should be held in Palm Springs," said Cameron, "for it was on the desert that the Arabian horse was first bred. He is a desert animal, raised and worked on the arid sands.

Council Denies Cut in Rental to Police Dep't

City council this week decided they would not grant Palm Springs Police Officers association reduced rental rates for the second annual police show set for the Polo Grounds next Saturday night.

Rental will be 15 per cent of the gross receipts and the council said that this decision sets a policy for future rental rates at the Polo Grounds. The group pointed out the Polo Grounds operation expenses are greater than anticipated in the city budget.

DP CAMPS Topic of Talk Tonight

A prominent social service worker, who has just returned to the United States after spending two years in the Displaced Persons Camps in Europe, will be the guest speaker at regular Sabbath services at the Jewish Community Center, this evening.

The service will be conducted by Rabbi Isaac E. Bloch, and Robert Morris. Peter Linden will render a special musical program, accompanied by Mrs. Bruce Koplow, at the organ.

The guest speaker, Miss Mildred Fisher, was the only woman to serve in Europe as resettlement officer of the American Joint Distribution Committee, a national Jewish philanthropic organization. Her topic will be "Displaced Persons—Their Resettlement." Services commence at 8 o'clock.

"It is fitting that this annual event should be held in Palm Springs," said Cameron, "for it

Arabian horse was first bred. He is a desert animal, raised and worked on the arid sands.

Council Refuses to Act on Plea of District Two

City council resolved to take no action on a petition read before the group at its March 7 meeting that Councilman Nathanson, district two representative, be recalled. Eight persons, Reservations residents, had signed the request.

Said the council this week:

Be it resolved that no action be taken by the city council upon the petition filed March 7, 1951 concerning the Councilman Nathanson, for the reason that the council does not believe sufficient cause exists for any action on its part.

Petitioners signed that Nathanson was no longer living in his district.

DOWN AT OUR HOUSE peace and quiet reign owing to a kindly neighboring tenant who makes plywood under the trade name of Weldwood at Lomita.

He heard Mrs. G. make some snide remarks about the house being cluttered up with phonograph records. . . . So he told her how nice it would be if she turned over a hall closet which contained household articles to me. And then he spent a day of his vacation on the desert, measuring, telephoning his factory for weldwood and when it came, he even put the shelves in place. . . . Now everything is convenient and it's easy to pick one from Loberdo to Ellington. I am deeply grateful to Mr. A. B. Austin.

BACK IN 1930 an advertising man on the paper I was then on, once said to me "Be happy, go lucky" and waved that brand of cigarette. . . . Now it's their slogan and you hear it all of the time. . . . Don't think he got anything out of it. . . . But I'll offer a slogan of my own. . . . After seeing and hearing the lively gatherings around our ace snub-nose comedian, I respectfully offer: "Where there's life, there's Hope." . . . If that's been used, I apologize to the office for using up two inches of valuable space in vain.

WELCOME NEWS just came from the Czar of the Back Shop. . . . "You ain't got enough room to spin a thin dime." . . . Cut that (deleted) short. . . . That means less labor and I eagerly strive to obey. . . . And don't miss the Arabian horse show, the Indian ceremonial, the Sunrise service, the police show and a flock of other big items coming up in the next few days. . . . There's a lot to do and see in Palm Springs.

Happy birthday . . . (That's for me. I'm celebrating.)
